"Are you visiting for the first time today?"

Welcome, guests! We're so glad you've come to worship with us this morning. Please help us to get to know you better by filling out the green guest card on the back of the seat in front of you and dropping it in the collection basket. Or, for your convenience, you may scan the QR code and complete the guest card digitally. Thank you for taking the time to attend our service today. We hope to see you again soon!

Living & Loving Like Jesus

Volume 11 Issue 45 November 8, 2026

We Welcome You!

We are honored that you chose to visit with us today. We hope that you will stay around a few minutes after our service to become better acquainted. We are eager to know you! We hope you will come to see us as we see ourselves, a group of people who desire to live and love like Jesus.

If you seek meaning and purpose in your life, we invite you to come and join us as we study God's word, the Bible, and find the true joy and fulfillment that can only be found in Him. Our doors and hearts are open. So, if you've been thinking, praying, searching, and hoping for a place to belong, we say again—welcome!

"Behold the Incomparable God"

Scripture Text: Isaiah 40:12–26 Jacob Brunjes

"To whom then will you liken God, or what likeness compare with him?" (Isaiah 40:18)

Isaiah 40 calls us to enlarge our vision of God. This vision concerns more than religion; it concerns reality itself. Isaiah directs our attention to the God who created the cosmos, governs the affairs of humanity, and established the workings of time, space, and matter. As we behold God's greatness, our faith in His wisdom, power, and care grows stronger.

Isaiah asks who has measured the waters in the hollow of His hand, marked off the heavens with a span, and weighed the mountains in scales. The oceans, mountains, and vast heavens reveal the greatness of God. He made them, understands them completely, and sustains them by His power. Nothing in creation exceeds His understanding or lies beyond His authority.

Isaiah also asks who instructed the LORD or taught Him knowledge. God needed no counselor when He created the heavens and the earth. He consulted no architects, engineers, philosophers, or scientists. His understanding is without limit, and His Spirit governs everything He has made.

Then Isaiah asks, "To whom then will you liken God?" There is no one like Him. Isaiah calls us to lift our eyes and consider the stars. God brings out their host by number and calls them all by name. Because of His great power, not one is missing.

The God who knows and sustains the countless stars has not forgotten His people. He knows our circumstances, understands our needs, and has the wisdom and power to care for us. He knows the end from the beginning and will accomplish what He has promised.

Knowing this changes how we face life's problems. When illness, financial pressure, family struggles, or an uncertain future weigh upon us, we can see these difficulties in light of God's greatness. Our problems may remain, and we may not understand how God will work through them, but we can trust the One who governs creation and keeps His promises.

Isaiah calls us to behold the majesty of God so that our faith may grow. The clearer our vision of Him becomes, the more confidently we can face life's challenges, trusting that the God who rules the heavens also knows, loves, and cares for His people.

Church Family News

Weekly Focus on Prayer Zoom Meeting—As a reminder, our weekly Monday prayer meeting will take place on Zoom on Sundays (today). It will begin promptly at 1:30pm. Zoom Meeting ID: 9216844791 7 Passcode: 2535662

Baptism—We rejoice in welcoming a new brother in Christ! On Wednesday evening, Kenny Chapman was baptized into Christ. Kenny lives locally and had been studying the Bible with a brother in Texas. Please join us in warmly welcoming Kenny to the family of God and encouraging him as he begins his walk in Christ!

Missionary Visit—On November 15th, Greg Clodfelter will deliver the sermon and share information about his missionary journey. We are looking forward to having him with us.

Fall Family Night—Our Fall Family Night has been rescheduled for Saturday, November 14th from 3pm to 7pm. We will be joining forces with the Banks to combine the festival with the Chili Cookoff. So, bring your chili or your favorite finger food and a lawn chair to the Macks' backyard for an afternoon of fellowship and fun.

Sock Donation to FISH—Thanks to the generosity of our church family, 140 pairs of socks were collected and donated to FISH, a local food pantry and clothing assistance organization. FISH expressed sincere appreciation for our donation and welcomes similar contributions in the future. A list of their current needs is posted on the bulletin board.

Young at Heart Event—At this time, there will not be a Young at Heart event for November. If it is able to be rescheduled, you will receive an email. Continue to keep Miley in your prayers.

Meal Train Reminder—Please continue to keep our sister Kay Himes in your prayers as she navigates ongoing health challenges. Those wishing to help provide meals or meal gift cards may visit her Meal Train using the QR code below. Your love and support are greatly appreciated!
