Living & Loving Like Jesus

Volume 8 Issue 44

October 29, 2023

My little children, let us not love in word or in tongue, but in deed and in truth.

1 John 3:18

We Welcome You!

We are honored that you chose to visit with us today. We hope that you will stay around a few minutes after our service to become better acquainted. We are eager to know you! We hope you will come to see us as we see ourselves, a group of people who desire to live and love like Jesus.

If you seek meaning and purpose in your life, we invite you to come and join us as we study God's word, the Bible, and find the true joy and fulfillment that can only be found in Him. Our doors and hearts are open. So, if you've been thinking, praying, searching, and hoping for a place to belong, we say again—welcome!

“Unconditional Love”

“This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers and sisters. If anyone has material possessions and sees a brother or sister in need but has no pity on them, how can the love of God be in that person? Dear children, let us not love with words or speech but with actions and in truth.” 1 John 3:16-18

The moment your children come into the world; you love them. They have done nothing to earn your love, but you love them anyway because they are yours. You continue to love them, no matter what they do. This is unconditional love and parents have it. This is the best human example of God's love for us. It is not based on performance or merit. It is based on the fact that we are His. It is crucial for any father to express his love for his children in both what he says and what he does.

Our heavenly Father expressed His love to us again and again (1 John 4:19). What excites the emotional energy of God? What stirs His heart? What makes Him sad? To know the answers to these questions is to have a better understanding of how much God loves you (Romans 5:8). Answers to these questions give us insight into the inescapable love of God. Throughout Scripture God affirms His love for us. We know He loves us, because He says so. God's INESCAPABLE Love – is a love that hurts with us, a love that dreams great dreams for us, a love that cares enough to discipline us so that we might return to Him (Hebrews 12:10). God tells us He loves us, and He shows His love for us. His ultimate act of love was sending His son Jesus Christ into the world to die for our sins.
