We Welcome You!

We are honored that you chose to visit with us today. We hope that you will stay around a few minutes after our service to become better acquainted. We are eager to know you! We hope you will come to see us as we see ourselves, a group of people who desire to live and love like Jesus.

If you seek meaning and purpose in your life, we invite you to come and join us as we study God’s word, the Bible, and find the true joy and fulfillment that can only be found in Him. Our doors and hearts are open. So, if you’ve been thinking, praying, searching, and hoping for a place to belong, we say again—welcome!

“A Servant’s Plea for Mercy”

*Hear my prayer, O Lord;
give ear to my pleas for mercy!*

In your faithfulness answer me, in your righteousness!

*Enter not into judgment with your servant,
for no one living is righteous before you.*

Psalm 143:1-2 ESV

Psalm 143 is a heartfelt prayer by David, who approaches God as a devoted servant experiencing deep distress and seeking divine mercy, guidance, and deliverance. He acknowledges his own weakness and the righteousness of God, appealing for forgiveness and help in the midst of his troubles. David’s words reflect the humility and dependence of a servant, as he remembers past acts of divine help and earnestly asks for spiritual direction, provision, and protection.

Ultimately, the psalm demonstrates a profound trust in God’s enduring love and a servant’s willingness to submit fully to the Lord’s will.
