Living & Loving Like Jesus

Volume 9 Issue 19

May 12, 2024

Therefore receive
one another,
just as Christ
also received us,
to the glory of God.

We Welcome You!

We are honored that you chose to visit with us today. We hope that you will stay around a few minutes after our service to become better acquainted. We are eager to know you! We hope you will come to see us as we see ourselves, a group of people who desire to live and love like Jesus.

If you seek meaning and purpose in your life, we invite you to come and join us as we study God's word, the Bible, and find the true joy and fulfillment that can only be found in Him. Our doors and hearts are open. So, if you've been thinking, praying, searching, and hoping for a place to belong, we say again—welcome!

“Harmony with One Another”

“Now may the God of patience and comfort grant you to be like-minded toward one another, according to Christ Jesus,”

Romans 15:5

In some ways, being a Christian would be easier if you didn't have to deal with people. You could just study God's Word and have a personal relationship with God. But that lifestyle (isolation) isn't what being a Christian is all about. If we are truly “Christ-Like” we must interact and have relationships with other people. And those interactions and relationships often bring about disagreement and conflict.

Peter tells us how to live and get along with each other—how to be “Christ-Like.” “All of you, live in harmony with one another; be sympathetic: love as brothers, be compassionate and humble” (1 Pet. 3:8).

Peter understood that even though brothers and sisters in Christ sometimes differ in matters of opinion, they can still get along and love each other. All it takes to live in harmony is: sympathy, brotherly love, compassion, and humility. When we employ these things in our Christian life, we become more and more “Christ-Like,” and the disagreements and conflicts grow smaller and smaller. Are you living in harmony with one another today?
