But Jonah arose to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the Lord. He went down to Joppa, and found a ship going to Tarshish; so he paid the fare, and went down into it, to go with them to Tarshish from the presence of the Lord.

Jonah 1:3

We Welcome You!

We are honored that you chose to visit with us today. We hope that you will stay around a few minutes after our service to become better acquainted. We are eager to know you! We hope you will come to see us as we see ourselves, a group of people who desire to live and love like Jesus.

If you seek meaning and purpose in your life, we invite you to come and join us as we study God's word, the Bible, and find the true joy and fulfillment that can only be found in Him. Our doors and hearts are open. So, if you've been thinking, praying, searching, and hoping for a place to belong, we say again—welcome!

“Jonah 1 – But the Lord Provided”

It is amazing how many provisions the Lord has for his people. At night the moon and stars provide light by day the sun is light and warmth. Food is provided on land and sea and these are just a few physical blessings. When we consider God’s grace and mercy in salvation, cleansing from sin and the glory of Heaven, we still only skirt around the goodness of the Almighty.

Jonah was a preacher of some standing in his own community and seemingly so effective that God would have him be an international evangelist and so he became eventually but not of any free choice. He should have gone east; he went west and intended to go as far as it was possible to go.

One feels sorry for the sailors who took him on board their ship. When they knew who and what he was and which God he served they quickly became afraid. These men were not Jews to be acquainted with the law and blessings but would have been believers in many gods, but none of these other gods put fear into their souls like the God of Israel. They did everything they could to save Jonah. Reluctantly there was no other choice and Jonah had to be thrown into the sea like rubbish.

‘But’ is such a huge word that invariable changes the situation. ‘But the Lord’ this was to be an action of the Almighty a change of situation for the prophet. But the Lord provided’ such was the case, Jonah would be saved. The Lord provided clothes in the Garden of Eden. A ram instead of Isaac for sacrifice – Genesis 22:14. His graciousness for providing goes on from one example to another as it does from one generation to another. God himself shall provide for us today, internally, externally and eternally. The provisions of God’s Almighty hand are never scarce.
