"Are you visiting for the first time today?"

Welcome guest! We're so glad you've come to worship with us this morning. Please help us to get to know you better by filling out the green guest card on the back of the seat in front of you and dropping it in the collection basket. Or, for your convenience, you may scan the QR code and complete the guest card digitally. Thank you for taking the time to attend our service today. We hope to see you again soon!

The law of the LORD is perfect,
converting the soul;
The testimony of the LORD is sure,
making wise the simple;

Psalm 19:7

We Welcome You!

We are honored that you chose to visit with us today. We hope that you will stay around a few minutes after our service to become better acquainted. We are eager to know you! We hope you will come to see us as we see ourselves, a group of people who desire to live and love like Jesus.

If you seek meaning and purpose in your life, we invite you to come and join us as we study God's word, the Bible, and find the true joy and fulfillment that can only be found in Him. Our doors and hearts are open. So, if you've been thinking, praying, searching, and hoping for a place to belong, we say again—welcome!

“Daily Devotional: Psalm 19:7-11 ”

I heard an elderly preacher on the radio bemoaning the fact that too many of the younger preachers were preaching philosophy and “new” ideas instead of just the simple truth from the word of God. While it is true that many have gone after the ways of man instead of God, this is nothing new. Paul constantly warned Timothy, Titus and various churches about this same problem. John wrote of those who would reject the word of God and go after men.

The best way to recognize error is to know the truth. The only way we can know the truth is to study the word of God. To make sure we are following the truth, we must study for ourselves and not follow the teaching of others. This is not to say we should not benefit from the study and writings of men but we must never forget that it is just that; the understanding of men. At the same time, we must remember that our own understanding is fallible and is not the standard. The Word is the only standard of truth. So we study and pray for wisdom so we will grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Lord God of heaven and earth, I thank you for revealing your will in your word. Thank you for the gospel of Jesus, his death, burial and resurrection to provide me with forgiveness so I can be with you in eternity. Give me a greater desire to know you, to know Jesus and to know your will for my life. I need your wisdom to be able to properly understand your word and to apply it. Help me always teach the truth but at the same time to never forget that I am fallible in my understanding. I ask a special blessing on those who are struggling in so many ways. Use me to help them to better trust in you. I pray in the name of Jesus.

Church Family News

Craft Day—Crafters are invited to bring a craft project, supplies, and a bag lunch and meet on Monday, September 23rd at noon in the fellowship room at the church building for fellowship and fun! See Pat Little for more information.

Annual Church Picnic—Mark your calendars for the annual church picnic at Waller Mill Park following Bible classes on Sunday, September 29th. This picnic will replace our regularly scheduled family potluck for September. Please plan to bring a side dish or dessert. A sign-up sheet is posted on the fellowship room bulletin board. Please see David or Tina Banks for more information.

Reading Assistance Program—The RAP program will resume on Wednesday, Oct. 2nd. If you know of a child who could benefit from help with reading, please give their parents one of our flyers (in the lobby) or see Beth Broxton. We meet every Wednesday from 4 to 5:30 p.m.

Cambridge Crossing Outreach—Join us on Saturday, Oct. 5th, at 2 p.m. as we minister to the residents of the Cambridge Crossing Assisted Living Facility. Please see Chris Gary for more information.

Ladies Discussion Series—In conjunction with area congregations, the Ladies Discussion Series will resume here at the Williamsburg Church of Christ on Saturday, October 5th, at 10 a.m. Additional dates and congregation locations will be announced soon. Please plan to attend in person or remotely via Zoom. See Angela Boykins for more information.

Spooktacular Halloween Event—Volunteers are needed for a Spooktacular Halloween Event, which will be hosted at the building on October 26th from 6 to 8 p.m. This event will replace our traditional trunk-or-treat, and we will decorate tables for trick-or-treating instead of our trunks. Two sign-up sheets are posted on the fellowship room bulletin board: one if you would like to volunteer to help with the event and the other if you would like to participate by decorating a table and passing out candy. Please sign up for one or both, or let Mikey or Jackie know by Sunday, Oct. 6th.

COMPASSION CARDS—GROUP 4

Group 4, please drop by room 7A/B (old fellowship room) after worship service to sign compassion cards.
